

Capodanno Medievale

La leggenda della Mantella

la Manifestazione
Medievale
il Pacchetto Turistico

Every year on the end of December in Montagnana, an ancient ritual is celebrated, evoking the long night of the New Year's Eve. The town returns to its past and celebrates the New Year's arrival with a great medieval party. Rituals, melodies and recalls of ancient times are brought back

The Medieval New Year's Eve is a multiplicity of events whose realization requires also the participation of the visitors.

The events take place in 2 different acts making up the celebration of the medieval culture in the paduan area:

- The Medieval Fest of the Red Cape on 27th December in Montagnana;
- The New Year's Eve Gala on 31st December in a Castle

Montagnana is a charming walled-city of the 14th century. Its mighty battlemented walls is more than 2 kilometers long and includes 24 towers and several defensive works, such as "The Castle of Saint Zeno" and "The Fortress of the Trees". The city wall is considered one of the greatest examples of medieval military architecture in Europe.

On special occasions the town returns to its past. Parade in period costume, banners, flag bearers, archers, artists and musicians, weapons and costumes; attempt to reproduce images and sound of the middle ages.
